

W e l c o m e

A 3D illustration of the word "Welcome" spelled out using seven colorful rectangular cards, each pinned with a pushpin. The cards are arranged in a slightly staggered, horizontal line. The first card is orange with a white 'W' and a white pushpin. The second is light gray with an orange 'e' and an orange pushpin. The third is light blue with a blue 'L' and a blue pushpin. The fourth is light yellow with a black 'C' and a black pushpin. The fifth is light green with a green 'O' and a green pushpin. The sixth is light blue with a black 'm' and a white pushpin. The seventh is orange with a white 'e' and a white pushpin. Each card has a subtle drop shadow, giving it a three-dimensional appearance against the plain white background.
